CLEVELAND AND NORTHERN OHIO INTERNATIONAL TRADE RESOURCES AND CONTACTS

1) CLEVELAND-CUYAHOGA COUNTY PORT AUTHORITY
Roy Knapp, Jr. (216) 241-8004

The Port Authority is a catalyst for developing and expanding global trade and investment for Northern Ohio businesses. The Port of Cleveland handles all international water-borne shipping, both imports and exports, and directs an aggressive Foreign Trade Zone program.

2) OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS - CITY OF CLEVELAND
Richard Konisiewicz (216) 664-3534

The Office of International Affairs links individuals affiliated with local cultural, educational, economic, governmental, and business sectors with people from around the world. Visitors and delegations are introduced to the extensive network of Cleveland's ethnic communities, corporations, medical facilities, universities, neighborhood development agencies, and non-profit organizations.

3) CLEVELAND COUNCIL ON WORLD AFFAIRS
Charles Dunbar (216) 781-3730

The Cleveland Council on World Affairs is a non-profit, non-partisan organization seeking to strengthen understanding of important international affairs through informed discussions, services to teachers and students, and hospitality and information for foreign visitors and students in Northeast Ohio.

4) CLEVELAND INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM
Dorothy Faller (216) 566-1906

The objective of the Cleveland International Program is to increase professional knowledge and to increase understanding among the world's diverse cultures. Professionals from other countries are brought to Cleveland where they spend time training at an organization which offers services similar to those offered by their employers. The new knowledge and skills gained from this training are then taken back and applied in the visiting professional's home country.

5) CLEVELAND WORLD TRADE ASSOCIATION
Chris Langmack (216) 541-0500

The Cleveland World Trade Association (CWTA) serves international business throughout the Cleveland and Northern Ohio area. Its mission is to educate, develop, network with, and represent the international business community in Northeast Ohio.
